Dear Manita,
may God bless you in all you do. You are a very sweet
girl and deserve
the best in life.
You have helped me loads in my Marshall trouble (you know what I mean) and I guess I have gotten you into a lot of Ashville
trouble, (Roger), but I guess it all turned out for the best. But I still think mine was unfair, but I guess you and everyone else does too.

I can't think of anything else to say.

I Love you,
Anne Patchard (?)

 it. May be every thing will work out for the best in every way. It looks very doubtful the for me either one doesn't seem very hopeful.

Dearest Manita,

I love you very much and always will. I hope you have boyfriends swarming all over you. I will always remember our walks up to the pool and the time you came to Old Fort and visited me. We have always been good friends and told each other everything. I hope we always will be good friends and have good times together.

Love ye loads,
Dorah

My darling Manita,

Honey, you are the best friend a girl could ever have. I love you as much as if you were my own sister. I'm certainly looking forward to another year together, we can have fun, with you know - who not around to pester us!! But it was fun anyway wasn't it? Never forget the Football Banquet, how could you? That was a nite an a half wasn't it?

Well, I'll sign off for this year. Hoping to see alot of you this summer, we'll have fun want we?

"I Love ye,"
Carol
